Tag Day Benefits Vets In Hospital

The next regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Andover Post 2128, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be held Wednesday, Sept. 14, at the home of the Junior Vice President, Mrs. George Hurst, 7 Temple ct.

The Ladies Auxiliary has received permission from the Board of Selectmen to conduct two tag days, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 16 and 17.

These tag days are being held to raise sufficient funds to carry out an extensive hospital program planned for this year. Not only does the Ladies Auxiliary aid local veterans, they also bring goodies and entertainment to the Chelsea Soldiers Home and the Veterans Hospital in Bedford. Any help extended toward the success of this fund raising affair will be grate-

Lovejoy Road Work To Start

The Realty Construction Co. has agreed to start work late this week on the installation of three catch basins on Lovejoy rd., at the intersection with a street that will run into the firm's proposed subdivision.

Town Manager Thomas E. Duff said the firm has agreed to begin the work promptly, and to put the first coat of asphalt on the street when the installation is completed. This is essentially the same agreement reported previously.

The town will put on the "sealer" coat.

Duff has stated that it may be possible to have the final work done not later than the middle of next week.

Residents of the section have been complaining for many months about the conditions of the road, under which the developers had installed water and sewer lines.

Standards Of Proper Dress Approved For High School

Suggested proper standards of dress for students at the High School were approved by the School Committee Tuesday night.

The standards are a re-affirmation of a code drawn up and published in 1953.

The Committee voted to approve the standards, as presented by Headmaster Lindsay J. March, although at least three members felt they might not go far enough.

Dr. Milton J. Meyers, Secretary William A. Doherty and Member Robert McIntyre expressed definite approval of an idea to require that boys be required to wear coats and ties.

The present rules allow sweaters or jackets, "unless the weather is hot".

Although the three men were of the strong opinion that a requirement might well be added concerning the wearing of jackets, they did not press the issue.

The standards set forth by the headmaster read:

"You should remember that you represent the school at all times, and that your appearance, as well as your conduct, should always

Light Vote Seen In Primary Next Tuesday

Next Tuesday is a fateful one for political aspirants in both political parties.

The polls will be open from 7-7 in Andover, in all six precincts. Although there are 9,194 voters eligible to vote here, most observers expect a light vote.

This may be particularly true in the Republican primary, where there are few contests to stir up voter interest.

On the other side of the political fence, however, there are contests galore.

In the Democratic balloting, voters will have an opportunity to choose among candidates for all but two positions - attorney general and state senator.

In the Republican voting, there is only one state-wide contest, for treasurer, plus four other contested positions.

Local Interest

First in the local contests, there are four Republican candidates for three nominations for representative. The incumbents - Frank S. Giles, William Longworth and Arthur Williams - seek re-nomination. Philip Sutcliffe of North Andover is the fourth contender.

George Marad of Andover seeks

Special Meeting Tuesday To Discuss School Job

A special session of the School Committee will be held next Tuesday night to consider filling the vacant post of assistant to the superintendent of schools.

Whether the discussion will be open to the public is in doubt, following a brief debate on this point Tuesday night at the regular meeting.

Member Robert McIntyre suggested an "informal" discussion of the job itself, if necessary in executive session. He felt that personnel matters would be part of the discussion, even though the major topic was the need for the position as it now is described.

Chairman Milton J. Meyers commented that he couldn't see what personnel matters could intrude on a discussion of the job and said he is perfectly willing to talk about it publicly.

Member Reta Buchan commented that she feels rather strongly that the position should be filled, and reminded the Board that Supt. Edward I. Erickson urged the creation of this position in 1956. She expressed some astonishment at there being any doubt about the need for the job among Committee members.

Supt. Erickson apparently also feels the need to discuss the job, for he told the Committee "You could spend some time discussing the job itself" before doing anything about filling it.

He said there have been several applicants, and at least four of these have been interviewed. But the superintendent said he had nothing to recommend to the Com-

QUESTION OF JURY TRIAL COMES MONDAY

The School Committee has been notified that oral arguments will be heard in Superior Court Sept. 12 in Lawrence on a motion by Benjamin F. Dimlich that parts of his suit against the School Committee be heard by a jury.

Town Counsel Fredric S. O'Brien told the Committee that none of its members need to be present at this preliminary argument.

TO ANDOVER'S 4571 INDEPENDENT VOTERS

Are you one of Andover's 4571 Independent voters? You can vote in the September 13th Primary by asking the person at the voting place for a Democratic or Republican ballot.

The Primary is important. Its purpose is to give all of us a voice in nominating candidates for public office.

Help to put capable candidates on the ballot for the November election. Good people are often kept out of public office because good people duck the primary.

Please vote in the September 13th Primary. Naturally we hope you ask for the Democratic Primary ballot. But vote in the Primary this year!

nomination for state senator, opposing Charles H. Anthony of Haverhill. In the Democratic voting, Senator James P. Rurak is unopposed.

Contests By Parties

Here is the way the various contests shape up, by parties:
The Democrats find Gov. Foster Furcolo opposed by Edmund C. Buckley and Thomas J. O'Connor

Jr. for the top nomination - United States Senator.

Seven men seek the nomination for governor. Joseph D. Ward, the convention choice, is opposed by Francis E. Kelly, John F. Kennedy, Alfred Magaletta, Robert E. Murphy, Endicott Peabody and Gabriel F. Piemonte.

Edward F. McLaughlin Jr., the party's convention choice as nominee for lieutenant governor, is challenged by Pasquale Caggiano. For state secretary, Kevin H. White is opposed by two hopefuls, Francis X. Ahearn and Margaret F. McGovern.

Six men want to be the Democratic nominee for state treasurer, including two named Kennedy.

They are John T. Driscoll, George F. Hurley, John B. Kennedy, John M. Kennedy, Patrick F. McDonough and Robert J. Sullivan.

Auditor Thomas J. Buckley is opposed by John F. Hynes.

Five candidates are battling for the nomination for Congressman - Thomas F. Duffy Jr., David Franklin, Michael J. MacDonald, William C. Madden and Ethel M. Simpson.

Six men are anxious for the nomination for the governor's council. They include Lawrence Mayor John F. Buckley, William G. Hennessey, Frank J. Incropera Jr., Otis H. Peluso, William V. Smith and Thomas J. Wholey.

Seven candidates are seeking three nominations as representative in the Fifth Essex district. They are Charles A. Buckley of Lawrence, Joseph F. Devaney of Methuen, John F. Linehan of Methuen, Thomas F. McGarty of North Andover, William S. Quinn of Methuen, Walter J. Sliva of Lawrence and Augustine J. Walsh of North Andover.

In the County posts, there are contests for each of the three positions.

Register of probate and insolvency has attracted four challengers to a job held by John J. Costello of North Andover. In addition to the incumbent, Alexander J. Cameron of Lynn, Daniel J. Costello of Lawrence, Thomas P. Costin Jr. of Lynn and Thomas W. McGee of Lynn seek the single nomination.

County commissioner has brought out the most candidates - 15, including Louis J. Scanlon of Lawrence, who was appointed to the vacancy on the Commission.

The candidates include Joseph N. Benedetti of Haverhill, Daniel J. Burke of Lynnfield, George A. Callahan Jr. of Lawrence, John S. Cook of Haverhill, Frank J. DePippo of Lawrence, Myron D. Donoghue of Saugus, William J. Donovan of Lawrence, Richard D. Higgins of Danvers, John E. Kelleher of Salem, Thomas E. Kennedy Jr. of Beverly, Sam Lena of Marblehead, David J. Lucey of Saugus, Edward J. O'Connor of Lawrence, James T. Owens of Haverhill and Scanlon, at the bottom of the list. Voters may select two of the candidates.

The final contest - for county treasurer - finds four men opposing Treasurer Thomas F. Duffy of Lynn for the nomination. They are Edward J. Brady of Lynn, Jeremiah Breen of Lawrence, David DiFilippo of Lawrence and Martin J. Killourie, also of Lawrence.

Republican Ballot

The Republican ballot features only one state-wide contest - with convention choice Walter J. Trybulski opposed by Francis A. Walsh.

In the race for governor's council, there are four candidates - George Karelitz of Haverhill, E. Ray Kelley of Manchester, John P. S. Mahoney Jr. of Lawrence, and Francis W. York of Lynn.

For state senator, as previously mentioned, Charles H. Anthony of Haverhill and George Marad of Andover are the contestants.

For county commissioner, there is a five-way fight involving one of the incumbents, C. F. Nelson Pratt of Saugus. He is opposed, in a contest where the voters can select two, by Emile A. Archambault of Lawrence, Paul W. Lunn of Beverly, Arthur A. Thompson of Methuen and Frank L. Wiggins of Peabody.

The Republicans have failed to put up any candidate for county treasurer.

STANDARDS OF DRESS APPROVED

bring credit to the school.

"You should come to school in clean trousers, not dungarees. You should wear a shirt and a sweater or jacket over it unless the weather is hot. No tee shirts are allowed as outside apparel. Shirts are to be tucked into trousers unless designed to be worn outside.

"You are to wear a coat and tie to school dances."

The requirements for girls include the following:

"You should dress simply and appropriately for your school day. No apparel of trouser type is permitted.

"You should wear simple informal dresses or suits to school dances. You should wear stockings and appropriate shoes."

During the discussion at the School Board meeting, member Robert McIntyre suggested that a provision be voted giving the headmaster the right to immediately send home those boys and girls who wear extreme styles, or any clothing that the headmaster might think inappropriate.

However, the superintendent explained that the headmaster has done this once or twice in the past, particularly on the occasion of a "Beatnik Day" that was spontaneously started last year.

The Committee agreed to give the headmaster all the support he needs in enforcing proper standards of dress and in sending home those students who do not conform to the standards.

For county commissioner, there is a five-way fight involving one of the incumbents, C. F. Nelson Pratt of Saugus. He is opposed, in a contest where the voters can select two, by Emile A. Archambault of Lawrence, Paul W. Lunn of Beverly, Arthur A. Thompson of Methuen and Frank L. Wiggin of Peabody.

The Republicans have failed to put up any candidate for county treasurer.

bringing credit to the school.

"You should come to school in clean trousers, not dungarees. You should wear a shirt and a sweater or jacket over it unless the weather is hot. No tee shirts are allowed as outside apparel. Shirts are to be tucked into trousers unless designed to be worn outside.

"You are to wear a coat and tie to school dances."

The requirements for girls include the following:

"You should dress simply and appropriately for your school day. No apparel of trouser type is permitted.

"You should wear simple informal dresses or suits to school dances. You should wear stockings and appropriate shoes."

During the discussion at the School Board meeting, member Robert McIntyre suggested that a provision be voted giving the headmaster the right to immediately send home those boys and girls who wear extreme styles, or anything that the headmaster might think inappropriate.

However, the superintendent explained that the headmaster has done this once or twice in the past, particularly on the occasion of a "Beatnik Day" that was spontaneously started last year.

The Committee agreed to give the headmaster all the support he needs in enforcing proper standards of dress and in sending home those students who do not conform to the standards.

Weddings...

SPARKS - TUTTLE

In Cochran Chapel, Phillips Academy, at a 4 o'clock ceremony Sunday afternoon, Aug. 28, Miss Audrey Gail Tuttle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray W. Tuttle, 354 North Main st., became the bride of James K. Sparks Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Sparks, 20 River st. The Rev. A. Graham Baldwin officiated.

Mrs. Cornelius Banta played the traditional wedding marches. White gladioli and evergreens decorated the chapel.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of white silk organza with a scoop neckline and short sleeves in a fitted bodice. The bouffant skirt was accented with Chantilly lace inserts trimmed with organza bows and it terminated in a full chapel train. A coronet of seed pearls held her veil of silk illusion and she carried a cascade bouquet of Eucharis Lilies, Stephanotis and trailing ivy with an orchid center.

Mrs. Charles F. Richmond of Andover was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Marjorie Swenson, Miss Nancy R. White and Miss Beverly J. Sparks, all of Andover, and Mrs. Joseph Clementi of Lawrence.

The honor attendant wore a gown of pale pink organza with deeper pink cummerbund trimmed with a back bow in cascade effect. She wore a matching pink headpiece with paler pink veiling and carried pink gladioli and trailing in a cascade bouquet. The bridesmaids wore similar costumes in Nile green with forest green accents and their bouquets combined white and pale pink gladioli and trailing ivy.

Joseph Clementi was best man and the usher group comprised: William Kneath and John Robinson of Andover, Michael Weinberg of Wilmington and Jeremiah Dineen of Lawrence.

A reception was held at the Andover Country Club with guests present from Beverly, Reading, Haverhill, Wilmington, New York, New Hampshire, Delaware and Rhode Island.

After a trip to Quebec and Eastern Canada the couple will reside at 5 Ayer st.

The bride is a graduate of Andover High School and the McIntosh School. She is employed in the assessor's office at the Andover town hall. Her fiancé is a graduate of Andover High School, Newman Preparatory School and East Coast Technical School. He is completing his studies at Northeastern University and is employed by Dana F. Perkins & Sons, Inc., civil engineers. He served with the U. S. Navy for three years.

MACMILLAN - McMAHON

White and aqua gladioli and carnations decorated the altar of St. Augustine's Church in Lawrence when Miss Phyllis Elinor McMahon, daughter of Mrs. Alice McMahon, 106 Wachusett ave., Lawrence, and the late Dr. Philip

A. McMahon, became the bride of Donald C. MacMillan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. MacMillan, 28 River st.

Very Rev. Paul A. Judson, O.S.A., pastor, officiated at the ceremony. The soloist was Mrs. Mark McComiskey, accompanied by James J. Sayers at the organ.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her uncle, Terry J. Page, chose a princess gown of white chiffon tulle over taffeta designed with a fitted basque bodice, lace cape sleeves and a sculptured neckline edged with re-embroidered Chantilly lace. The full length bouffant skirt featured side panels of Chantilly lace and appliques of lace in front which formed an apron effect. The entire back was festooned and bustled with tiny puffs caught up by matching lace medallions beginning at the waistline and terminating at the end of the chapel-length train. Her tiered veil of imported silk illusion fell from a lace cap trimmed with pearls and iridescent sequins and she carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis centered with an orchid.

Miss Ellen McMahon was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a waltz length gown of aqua pure organza over taffeta, styled with a scoop neckline, short sleeves, and a pin tucked Empire bodice trimmed with an organza rose. The bouffant skirt featured a large bow with streamers falling to the hemline. Her headpiece was a bow clip of matching organza decorated with seed pearls and trimmed with a circular nose tip veil. A basket of American Beauty roses and baby's breath completed her ensemble.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Maurice of Wallingford, Conn. and Miss Sheila O'Leary of Methuen. They wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor and carried baskets of pink roses and baby's breath.

James A. MacMillan was best man for his brother and the ushers were Herbert T. MacMillan, brother of the bridegroom, and Richard J. Manning, brother-in-law of the bride.

Following a reception at the Andover Country Club, the couple left on a wedding trip to Lake George and the Thousand Islands. Guests were present from Wallingford, Conn., Lewiston, Maine, Syracuse, N. Y., and Pittsfield.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's High School and is a secretary at the Avco Research Center in Wilmington. Mr. MacMillan received his bachelor of science degree from Worcester Polytechnic Institute and is employed as a mechanical engineer at Western Electric.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Support Your Team

Football is with us again — and it looks like Andover High will field a team of which the town can be proud.

One big factor in any team's success, however, is the extent of the support it receives from townspeople.

Morale — a big factor in any competitive sport — gets a big boost from widespread public support.

And this, naturally, is where all of us come in.

By the simple act of attending the games, we can all help give this team a hand. The team deserves to know, by the evidence of attendance, that it has community support and interest.

Is The Primary A Farce?

The state primary next Tuesday seems fated to be a minority affair again this year, with little or no interest being shown in the primary.

With attention focused on the November election, it appears that most residents of Andover and of the state will let the selection of candidates for state offices go by default. As usual, a minority will vote in the primary and select the candidates — then many men and women will complain that the candidates do not offer the qualifications they, the absent voters, would like to see.

If nothing else, the primary will offer one test that normally does not come to light — the ability of teams of counters to get the ballots counted and properly tallied after the polls close. There is considerable speculation about the process, because no one really knows how long it will take the teams to finish their jobs — thus this is a good test, a warm-up of sorts, for the November election.

It's a sorry commentary that this is the only item of much interest in the primary. For in many ways this selection of candidates is the more important of the elections. If good candidates are selected, we can be fairly certain that the eventual office holders will be qualified, regardless of their party affiliation. If the candidates are not wisely chosen, by many voters, there certainly will be room for complaint when the election comes along in a few weeks.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — September, 1910

Because of serious illness in the vicinity, the bells of the Free Church will not be used for the present to announce services.

The florists and gardeners association scored two triumphs last Saturday, according to an "editorial cinder". First, the association managed the fruit, flower and vegetable show at town hall in an efficient manner, and second, had a very attractive display on the stage. Hundreds attended the show and many favorable comments have been heard about it.

The bronze tablet for the missionary boulder at Rabbit's Rock is being prepared in Boston and will be ready for the dedicatory services there Oct. 12.

Ballardvale defeated the strong Royal team of Andover, by a score of 8-5, on the Playstead Labor Day. Curley pitched for the home team in a very effective manner, holding the visitors safe at all times.

William Black of Clan Johnston won the first prize of $10 in the hundred-yard dash at the annual picnic of the clansmen held in Boston last Monday.

25 Years Ago — September, 1935

Christ Church will celebrate its 100th anniversary with appropriate ceremonies Oct. 5-6.

The Best and Currier homes in Shawheen Village were broken into over the weekend. Estimated value of the thefts is $1,000. Police are still investigating the two breaks.

A petition for a special town meeting is being circulated seeking repeal of the special zoning ordinance passed in 1927. The same article appeared in the annual warrant and was defeated by the town meeting. The subject is also the matter of a case before the state Supreme Court.

The officials of the Andover-Shawheen Realty Co., with town officials and residents, are discussing the town's acquisition of the much disputed corner lot in the village Square. Cornelius A. Wood has offered to give $3,000 towards the purchase if the resulting park is named in memory of his father, who built up the Village.

Complaints of backfiring have been growing of late in Shawheen. Residents say truck drivers are making too much noise in the wee hours of the morning. Police stopped one driver at 2 a.m. Monday and he was fined $10 in District Court Tuesday. The judge warned that he will impose stiffer fines if the nuisance continues.

10 Years Ago — September, 1950

The public and parochial schools opened Wednesday morning, with a combined enrollment of 2,106. This is about 90 more students than last year on opening day, and is accounted for in large part by the increase in the public schools.

Building activity continues unabated, despite the war in Korea. The value placed on new construction in August is $197,150. During the first eight months of the year, permits have been issued for 101 new homes, compared to the 77 permits issued throughout the year 1949.

When the veterans' housing opens late this month, the street and entire project will be dedicated as a memorial to service men of Andover who gave their lives during World War II. An appropriate plaque will be placed in the project.

Explorer scouts of Post 72 spent the holiday weekend in a trip to Sherbrooke, Canada, where they saw the annual Sherbrooke fair.

M. Roger Bernard, a teacher from France, has arrived in Andover where he will teach at Phillips Academy for a year. Chester Cochran has already arrived in France for teaching duties there, as part of the exchange program sponsored by the government.

Subject to the wishes of the family, we can provide appropriate music at any time. Request numbers are always in order, and we want our patrons to feel free to make such requests. The matter of the musical selections is discussed with the family when funeral arrangements are being made.

Census Bureau Will Provide Information

Last year, 732 residents of Massachusetts turned to the U. S. Bureau of the Census for help in proving they were born.

These persons were among an estimated 30 million United States residents who are without proof of age or birth. The historical records of the Census Bureau provide the only source of this information for most of these 30 million people.

Proof of age or birth is needed today to collect social security and other retirement benefits. It is needed to obtain passports. It is needed to qualify for jobs carrying certain age or citizenship requirements. It is needed for some forms of insurance.

Since 1920, the Census Bureau has provided more than three and one-half million persons with copies of their Census records on age, place of birth, citizenship, or kinship. Persons seeking such records of facts about themselves should write to the Personal Census Service Branch, Bureau of the Census, Pittsburgh, Kansas, for a Census Records Search Application Form. A fee is charged for a search of not more than two censuses for one person and for one copy of the information found. An expedited search costs extra. Expedited searches are usually completed within a few days while the routine search may take up to 30 days, depending upon the backlog of requests and the ease or difficulty in locating the information. The personal information in the records of the 1900 and later Censuses is confidential by law and may be furnished only upon the written request of the person to whom it relates or, for a proper purpose, a legal representative such as guardian or administrator of an estate. Information regarding a child who has not reached legal age may be obtained upon the written request of either parent.

It's well to remember that the more you are promised the less you may expect.

"A few weeks ago I saw a little girl struck by a car as she tried to cross the street. I saw a father race toward her and hold her to him as she struggled in the agony of death. I saw all the plans he had made for her crumble, and I saw the look of despair that came over his face. I could only offer a prayer that such a thing might never happen again.

"Today my daughter, who is six years old, started off to school. Her cocker spaniel, whose name is 'Scoot,' watched her leave and whined his belief in the folly of education.

"Tonight we talked about school. She told me about the girl who sits in front of her, a girl with yellow curls, and about the boy across the aisle who makes faces; about the teacher who has eyes in the back of her head; about the trees in the school yard, and the big girl who does not believe in Santa Claus.

"We talked about a lot of things, some important, some unimportant.

"Now, as this is being written, she is sound asleep with her doll 'Paddy' in her arms.

"When her doll gets broken, or her finger gets cut, or her head gets bumped, I can fix them. But when she starts to cross the street, then Mr. Driver, she is in your hands.

"Much as I wish I could, it's not possible for me to be with her all the time. I have to work and pay for her home, her clothes and her education.

"So, Mr. Driver, please help me to look out for her. Please drive carefully. Please drive slowly past schools and at intersections. And please remember that sometimes children run from behind parked cars.

"Please don't run over my little girl."

MRS. AUBREY W. COLE JR.

Wedding...

COLE - BAKER

The marriage of Miss Nadene Lee Baker to Aubrey Warrington Cole Jr. was solemnized Thursday evening, Sept. 1, at Seminole Heights Methodist Church in Tampa, Fla.

Dr. J. Withers Blake officiated at the ceremony, which included the communion service, in a setting of palms, ferns, white gladioli, pompons, and baby's breath. Music was by Mrs. George Hayman, organist, and Donald Barney, who sang "Because", "Walk Hand In Hand with Me", and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robert Baker of Seffner, Fla., formerly of Andover. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Warrington Cole of Tampa. Mr. Baker gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white gown of re-embroidered Chantilly lace and tulle over satin. The fitted bodice had a portrait neckline of scalloped lace. The bouffant skirt was formed of layers of lace and pleated tulle ruffles, cascading to the floor at front and forming a chapel train at back. Her finger-tip veil of silk illusion was caught to a tiara of seed pearls and imported crystal beads. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis entwined with a garland of pearls. Maid of honor, Miss Virginia

Payne, college roommate of the bride, wore a gown of yellow lace with a picture hat of layered yellow tulle. Her cascade bouquet was of bronze mums. Bridesmaids were Miss Marilyn Payne, Miss Barbara Bond, Miss Sara Thing, and Miss Janet Kinney. They were gowned alike in ballerina length dresses of yellow lace with hats of yellow and bronze tulle and carried crescent bouquets of yellow and bronze mums. Miss Dana Curtas was junior bridesmaid. She wore a bouffant, period gown of yellow lace and taffeta with a hat of yellow and orchid tulle. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of orchid mums centered with a yellow rose. Best man was Gene Cole, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were William Matthews, Daniel Shaffer, Gene Wiggers, and Benjamin Mobley.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of silk organza in Dior blue with a matching hat of velvet and sequins. Her accessories were of plum-colored satin; and her corsage of deep-red roses. The groom's mother was attired in moss-green chiffon with beige accessories. She wore pale pink sweetheart roses.

A reception was held in the Church Fellowship Hall.

For their wedding trip by motor to an undisclosed destination, the bride wore a blue shantung suit with navy accessories. The couple will make their home in Tampa.

At The Library

Closed Sept. 10

The Memorial Hall Library will be closed all day, Saturday, Sept. 10. It will be open as usual on Saturdays, from 10-6, beginning Saturday, Sept. 17.

Around The Theatre

Once a while, we hear of play reading at home, or of the gathering together of a group to listen to recordings of plays. With summer theatre flourishing, many people have been stimulated to read the plays in book form. The library has a good collection of current plays as well as theatre biographies and, for the more ambitious, books about stage lighting, scenery, play writing and directing.

The following is a brief selection of what may be found on the library's shelves: Play: Sunrise at Campobello, Schary; The Dark Is Light Enough, Fry; JB, MacLeish; Gold Wind and the Warm, Behrman; Separate Tables, Rattigan; Cat On a Hot Tin Roof, Williams; The Dark At the Top of the Stairs, Inge; Our Town, Wilder; Arms and the Man, Shaw; Long Day's Journey Into Night, O'Neill; Biographies: Some Enchanted Evenings, the story of Rodgers and Hammerstein, Taylor; A Life In the Theatre, Guthrie; No People Like Show People, Zolotow; Act One, Hart; Memories, Ethel Barrymore; My Autobiography, Bankhead.

Theatre Comment: Passionate Playgoer, Oppenheimer; Lies Like Truth, Clurman; Around Theatres, Beerbohm. Theatre History: Early English Stage, 1300 to 1660, Wickham; Living Stage; A History of World Theater, MacGowan; Theatre, U.S.A., 1668-1957, Hewitt; Japanese Theatre, Bowers. Stage Technique: Art of Play Production, Dolman; Technique of Acting, Strickland; An Actor Prepares, Stanislavski; Staging and Scenery, Selden; The Theatre of Robert Edmond Jones, Pendleton; Part of a Lifetime, Simonson. Playwrights and Playwriting: Playwright At Work, Van Druen; How Not To Write a Play, Kerr; Discovering Drama, Drew; The Theatre In Our Time, Gassner; Sean O'Casey, Krause; Eugene O'Neill, The Man and His Plays, Clark; Immortal Shadows, Young. Also a few recordings: Everyman, a moral play; The Lady's Not For Burning; Death of a Salesman; As You Like It (a Marlowe Society recording); Saint John; Riders to the Sea.

Last Call For Summer

The chances are that whatever your summer sport or activity, there may well be a book or books about it in the library's collection. The following are but a few: How To Teach Yourself and Your Family To Swim, Sava; The Complete Book Of Outboard Cruising, Scharff; Skiing on Water, Andersen; The Expert's Book of Boating, Brindze; Sunset Barbecue Book; Advanced Golf, Middlecoff; Wildwood Wisdom, Jaeger; Streamer Fly Fishing in Fresh and Salt Water, Bates; Cook It Outdoors, Bates; Complete Picnic Book, Shallcross.

Jane Addams Anniversary

Sept. 6 marks the centenary of the birth of Jane Addams, the remarkable American woman whose name and life is so wrapped up with Hull House in Chicago. The library has two of her autobiographical writings "Twenty Years at Hull House" and Second Twenty Years at Hull House as well as Winifred's Wise's biography "Jane Addams of Hull House."

SPECIAL MEETING ON VACANCY

mittee Tuesday night.

Member John Sullivan told the Board that he strongly believes there is a need for the assistant, based on studies he has made of administrative organizations in other school departments, and on his own knowledge of administrative matters.

Because the hour was late - the Committee didn't start talking about this subject until after 11 p.m. - members agreed to meet next Tuesday to continue the discussion.

Mr. McIntyre several times expressed his interest in re-evaluating the job prior to any action on filling the vacancy.

Mrs. Buchan, on the other hand, stressed the fact that there are more faculty members now than there were when the job was created - and that the need must then be at least as great if not greater.
